

College of Operating Department Practitioners

Conference & Exhibition Programme

“Theatre, Lights, Action; Challenging and Improving Practice”

The conference programme has been designed to inform; develop practitioner knowledge; network on key issues; share practice and support practitioners in their CPD activity. The workshops were popular last year and we are repeating some by popular request. The College is the only Professional Body for ODPs who set standards, develop the education and promote the profession.

Day One - Friday 7th May 2010

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 08.15-08.50 | Registration and Coffee
Complete the ‘Have your Say’ Cards |
| 09.00-09.20 | Welcome and Introductions
College Structure - Moving forward
Helen Booth, Chair of the Professional Council |
| 09.20-10.00 | Challenges facing the Global Stage <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Identify the need for widening the global network• Impact of global challenges and how sharing and challenging practice will aim to improve performance?• Challenges to working abroad |
| 10.00-10.45 | Session One - ‘ODP’s in combat - working in the forces’ <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Challenges facing the role of the ODP whilst in combat• Improving Practice through team working - experience for life |
| 10.45-11.25 | Coffee Break and Exhibition Opens |
| 11.30-12.15 | Workshops session 1 - sign on at the registration desk |
| 11.30-12.15 | Session Two - ‘Scottish Challenge and the workforce’ <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Challenges to the current practitioner develop and competence• Modernisation of the Perioperative Workforce in Scotland• Physician Assistance in Anaesthesia - the Scottish way |

College of Operating Department Practitioners

12.15-13.00	Session Three - Why Human Factors are significant to Improving Practice <ul style="list-style-type: none">• What are Human Factors and how can they contribute to the power gradient being reduced• Implementing Human Factors into practice
13.00-14.00	Lunch and Exhibition
14.00-14.45	Workshops session 2 - sign on at the registration desk
14.00-14.45	Session Four - ‘Managing the Workforce’ <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Assistant Practitioners - potential role in future teams• Challenges for the workforce of the future
14.45-15.30	Session Five - Advanced Roles - Physicians Assistant (Anaesthetics); Surgical Care Practitioner <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Going forward; developments and opportunities for ODPs• Current scope of practice for advanced clinical roles• Where to now?
15.30-16.00	Tea Break and Exhibition
16.00-16.45	Session Six - ‘Practitioner negligence, a legal prospective’ <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Responsibility and accountability of registration• Consequences of negligence to all players in the scenario
16.45-17.15	Panel Forum - Chaired by Bill Kilvington, CODP President Open discussion on Sessions 4, 5, 6 and pre presented questions
17.30	Exhibition closes
19.00-19.45	Wine reception
20.00	Dinner with after-dinner speaker ‘Patients Perspective on the Actors and their Performance of Care’ ‘Charity Raffle’ - The Wexham Park Ventilator Foundation

College of Operating Department Practitioners

Conference & Exhibition Programme “Theatre, Lights, Action; Challenging and Improving Practice”

Day Two - Saturday 8th May 2010

- 09.15-09.35 Coffee and Registration (Fringe meetings to be announced)
- 09.40-10.00 Welcome and summary of Day One by Bill Kilvington, CODP President
- 10.00-10.45 Session Seven
- 10.00 - 10.20 Fitness to Practice - HPC Report
- Lessons to be learnt from process
 - Accountability to report
- 10.20 - 10.35 Representation in Support of ODPs ‘Fitness for Practice’ Case
- The value of seeking support early
 - Preparing your case
- 10.45-11.30 Coffee Break and Exhibition
Fringe meeting - see registration desk for details
- 11.30-12.15 Workshops session 3 - sign on at the registration desk
- 12.15-13.00 Workshops session 4 - sign on at the registration desk
- 11.30-13.00 Session Eight - ‘Telemedicine in Trauma Care; linking specialist services to the community’
- Discussion on how this service was established and supports specialists trauma reconstruction
 - Understand how specialist provide advice to clinicians confronted with complex injuries as well as plan for the optimal reconstructive care for these patients
 - How Telemedicine provides better planning of the care for trauma and burns patients’
- 13.00-14.00 Lunch and Exhibition
- 14.00-14.45 Workshops session 5 - sign on at the registration desk

College of Operating Department Practitioners

- 14.00-14.45 Session Nine - Patient Safety
- Tools to improve practice - a whole team approach
 - Exemplar practice and how it involved all players
- 14.45-15.30 Session Ten - 'ODA to Doctorate'
- A journey of challenges over a 32 year period
 - Reflecting on whether it was a planned approach or a reaction to life's epiphanies
- 15.30-16.00 Tea Break and Exhibition - Evaluation forms to be completed and handed to CODP staff
- 16.00 Exhibition Closes
- 16.00-16.45 Session Eleven - 'BSc...what this means for you'
- Challenging existing preconceived ideas of a graduate profession
 - Shedding light on developing your practice for the future
- 16.45-17.00 Prize Draw - and closing remarks
- 17.00 Conference closes

Workshops will be running over the two days: All workshops will have key objectives that will enable you to use the knowledge and skills gained to support and enable you to develop your CPD activity evidence for the forthcoming audit cycle

- Difficult Airways - understanding the complexity of airway management
- Transfer of the critically ill patient - accountability and competence required
- Major incidents and the ODP - what you need to know?
- CPD workshop - profile and standards
- Writing for the Journal - CPD activity that enables you to share practice and 'have your say'
- Sphere Medical focus group - participate in some scoping activity for the introduction of a new product
- Resuscitation workshop - are you up to date (TBC latest equipment to be available for hands on participation)

Workshops run on a priority booking basis, delegates can sign up at the registration desk